This amendment is in response to the Commission's letter dated January 5, 2007. Updates to employer and occupation information have been included. The Committee will file amendments as additional information becomes available. The excess contribution from Albert Stafford was moved to the Non-Federal account on November 7, 2006, per the donor's instructions. As is allowable for State Parties, the Committee retained $10,000 in the Federal Account. The additional transfers to the Non-Federal account for 'Transfer of excessive contribution' are for contributions received in a previous reporting period. Transfers to the Non-Federal account for 'Cash Flow' were for cash flow purposes only. No allocable expenses were paid from the Committee's non-federal account. During the 2006 election cycle, the Committee established separate accounting methods for its receipts from National Party Committees. The Democratic Congressional Committee ceded its 441a(d) authority to the Committee, thus increasing the limits for expenditures made on behalf of Jim Marshall and John Barrow.
